Stand Up People

For more information about this or any other Roylco product, please visit our website and search by item number.

Packaged to please, each kit contains enough for the whole class. These sturdy card stock figures allow children to explore self awareness, story telling or simple crafts. Encourage students to decorate, then stand to display. Includes: 24 stand-up people, 11½" (9 cm) tall and guide.

These figures are perfect for "All About Me" art! Students can create self-portraits to introduce themselves to their peers, or do a partner activity! Partners interview each other and then create a biographical portrait and introduce their partner to the class! For more Inspiration and to watch a video, please visit our website and search by item number 53001.

Encourage student creativity and integrate art and literacy! Challenge students to create stand-up representations of their favorite characters from their favorite books. Remind students that they are NOT limited to human characters. Anthropomorphized animals, aliens and robots work too!

Need a fun and multicultural Christmas craft? Challenge students to research the different ways various countries view Santa Claus and represent them with a stand-up Santa! Make the end of term fun and educational. Visit our blog for more ideas:
